

VIRTUAL

by pk_tunuri

To let go of the struggle and strife
I wish to spend the rest of my life

Going into the woods
Escaping falsehoods

Dancing in the rains
Freeing myself from all the chains

Watching blue skies
Catching fireflies

Playing with rays of sunlight
Counting stars in the midnight

Admiring the nature
Identifying it as my teacher

To let go of the struggle and strife
I wish to spend the rest of my life
Going into the woods
Escaping falsehoods

Pain is the only thing which is real
It's hard to find all my wishes are virtual
